

Bastide de la Ciselette

Bandol Rosé

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Located in Provence in the far southeast corner of France, Bandol is most famous for its rich, dark, reds made primarily from Mourvèdre.
- Founded in 2010, Bastide de la Ciselette celebrates the local varieties and terroir of the appellation.
- Owner Robert De Salvo works his vineyards sustainably.
- Biodynamic principles are followed in the cellar, with the lunar calendar offering guidance.
- The resulting wines are a perfect blend of rusticity and polish — elegant wines of distinct character without the rough edges.
