

Domaine de la Grande Colline

Vin de France Rouge Bibendum

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Domaine de la Grande Colline is located near the top of the hill of Cornas, overlooking the Rhône River.
- Vigneron Jonathan Jacquart worked with local legends Emmanuel Reynaud and Thierry Allemand before founding his own estate.
- Jacquart has made significant improvements to the vineyards, introducing biodiversity in the form of cows, bees, and new plantations of various plants and trees.
- Vinification is very simple, using whole bunches with light extraction and aging in neutral barrels sourced from the Dujac estate.
- These are wines that taste true to the Cornas terroir of deep, dark Syrah with savory, peppery notes and an incredible amount of depth.

APPELLATION

Vin de France

SUB-REGION

Cornas

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Cinsault

FARMING

Sustainable, Biodynamic

SOIL

Clay-limestone

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

Made from organically-grown grapes from Saint-Gervais in the Gard.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Hand harvested. Native yeast fermentation in stainless steel vats, whole bunches crushed, extraction by pumping over. Aging in stainless steel vats. No inputs except minimal amounts of sulfur.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

13.0

PACK SIZE

6x750mL