

Champagne Michel Fallon

Brigitte Fallon Avize Grand Cru Brut Blanc de Blancs Avysia

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- With extremely limited production, Michel Fallon is a pedigreed winemaker who is intensely devoted to his craft.
- From his decades-long working relationship with Anselme Selosse, Michel has access to pristine fruit and cellar conditions.
- One of his wines is Cuvée Ozanne, a solera cuvée made from ten vintages, with just over half being from the most recent vintage.
- Added in 2023, a second line of Champagnes are being bottled under the his wine's name - Brigitte Fallon. They are made from a combination of Fallon Avize grapes and other growers' Avize grapes of the same quality.
- True insider's wine, the style of Champagne Michel Fallon has oxidative notes, energy, and freshness. If you're lucky enough to get your hands on some, it provides an unparalleled drinking experience

APPELLATION

Champagne

SUB-REGION

Côte des Blancs

GRAPE VARIETY

100% Chardonnay

FARMING

Sustainable, Organic

SOIL

Chalk and limestone

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE

Made from grapes grown in a plot of 900 square meters adjacent to Fallon's home in the Grand Cru commune of Avize, as well as the Fallon's and other growers' reserve wine from the local cooperative.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION

Fermented in temperature-controlled tanks with malolactic fermentation. Aged four years on the lees. Based on the 2017 vintage with 42% solera reserve (2002-2014). 7g/L dosage.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME

12.0

PACK SIZE

6x750mL

