

Noughty

La Mancha Sparkling Rosé Non-Alcoholic

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Founded by Amanda Thomson, Noughty was created to offer premium non-alcoholic wines with no added sugars, alcohol, or animal-derived processing agents.
- Thomson's inspiration came from her plant-based, no-sugar upbringing and passion for transparency in food and drink production.
- The range includes sparkling white and rosé, as well as still white, rosé, and red, covering a variety of occasions.
- Wines are made using traditional winemaking methods before being gently dealcoholized through vacuum distillation or spinning-cone technology to retain flavor and aroma.
- All Noughty wines are certified organic, vegan, halal, and gluten-free, with minimal sulfites.
