Gilles Robin

Crozes-Hermitage Cuvée Albéric

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Gilles Robin is a family estate that has been growing grapes for four generations. However, it was Gilles who first decided to estate bottle the wines.
- Now totaling 15 hectares, Gilles bottles Crozes-Hermitage, Hermitage, and Saint-Joseph.
- Viticulture and vinification is entirely organic.
- The prestige cuvée Alberic Bouvet comes from vines planted by his grandfather in the 1940s.
- Gilles crafts his under-the-radar wines with honesty and integrity, reflecting his roots as a grape grower with deep ties to the Rhône.

APPELLATION
Crozes-Hermitage

SUB-REGION
Northern Rhône

GRAPE VARIETY
100% Syrah

FARMING
Sustainable, Organic (Ecocert)

SOIL
Gravel, pebbles, graphite and red clay

VINEYARDS & VITICULTURE
First planted in 1946 by Albéric Bouvet, grandfather of Gilles Robin, on the top terroirs of the estate (Rochas, Monico, and Terres Rouges). Low yielding vines of 50+ years.

HARVEST & VINIFICATION
Grapes are hand-harvested. Three terroirs are vinified separately: half destemmed, partial whole cluster, use only native yeasts. Blended together after a year's aging in barrels and demi-muids (600L), 20% new.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME
13.5

PACK SIZE
12x750mL