

Domaine du Trapadis

Cairanne Les Garrigues

ABOUT THE ESTATE

- Domaine du Trapadis is a Rasteau-based producer with a history that stretches back over four generations.
- The current head of the estate, Helen Durand, has been running operations since 1996.
- Over the 20+ years Helen has been in charge, he has shepherded the style of the wines through an evolution towards more nuance and complexity.
- All 34 hectares of vines are Ecocert-certified organic and practicing biodynamic.
- Rasteau is a newer appellation in the Rhône, and its potential is just starting to be revealed – thanks in large part to producers like Domaine du Trapadis.
